Join us on Friday night for a movie and

Movie Time: Menu for Murder

(from the book Murder at the PTA Luncheon)

A cyanide-laced canapé -- and the death of the PTA president who devoured it -- had quite upset the spring luncheon of the affluent suburban Connecticut PTA, when a second PTA member dropped dead from a poisoned packet of artificial sweetener. Now Susan Henshaw, vice-president of the PTA, leads an investigation into an organization riddled with scandal . . . Who put the cyanide in the crab canapé? That's what everyone at the PTA luncheon wants to know--and no one more than Susan Henshaw, who was the hostess! Along with a couple of Connecticut state troopers, Susan cooks up a scheme to find the killer.

Join us in your appropriate sweats/pajamas/slippers with your blanket and a pillow for the floor and enjoy the movie with popcorn!
